

Camera Aperture Tutorial Exercise

Exercise

The spatial aperture function of most cameras can be approximated by a symmetric circular gaussian: $h_s(x, y) = \frac{1}{\sigma\sqrt{2\pi}} e^{-\frac{x^2+y^2}{2\sigma^2}}$. Show that the impulse response of this spatial aperture filter is also a gaussian.