Edge Detection Employing Neighboring Pixel Differences Tutorial Exercise

In edge detection algorithms, the calculation of the gradients is carried out by calculating differences in neighboring pixels: $f(x, y) - f(x + 1, y)$. Find the frequency response $H(\omega_1, \omega_2)$ of this filter and prove that it is a highpass filter.