Image Decimation Exercise [Help]

Help: The following tips will help you complete this exercise:

- The indexes for the output image must increase by a step of 1, while the indexes for the input image must increase by a step of d, where d is the decimation factor.
- When displaying the image, if it is entirely white or black, try specifying its data type using the .astype() function.